

Most states rely heavily on Chinese market access for imports and exports

In 2017, most states counted China a major trade partner, with California relying heavily on Chinese imports.

